ROOM TO GROW

Aull and Wilson Secure Option on Academy Farm.

For a long time there has been a demand for moderately priced building lots in Lexington, and to meet this demand Ed Aull and M. D. Wilson have secured an option on the academy farm with a view of having it platted and offering to the people the lots at a much lower price than lots have been heretofore. It will be known as the Southside Addition. Their plans contemplate two streets, 21st and 22nd, running north and south, and four streets, Jefferson, Madison, Garfield and McKinley, running east and west. The streets will be graded and a concrete walk put down from the Pacific depot up the east side of 21st street. This work to be done this fall, if possible.

Aull & Wilson are to be commended on their enterprise and foresight in promoting this addition. It was almost impossible for a man of moderate means to secure within the corporate limits of Lexington, or near the limits, a lot on which to build a home. The Lexington Building and Loan Association makes it possible for every industrious man to build and own his own home, but without building lots priced at a reasonable sum, the advantages of the Building and Loan Association were going to waste. This new addition will meet a crying need, and every support should be given Messrs. Aull & Wilson in their undertaking.

Misses Young Entertain.

The home of Misses Elizabeth and Julia Young, 1525 South Street, was the scene of a very enjoyable reception Saturday night, October 14. The occasion was to meet their brother, J. B. Young and his bride who was Miss Eliza Kelly and who were married in Georgetown, Ky., Tuesday, October 10, 1911.

About two hundred guests assembled to meet the bride and groom, and to enjoy the gracious hospitality of the Misses Young. The rooms were decorated very delicately and with rare taste. The decorations in the parlor were ferns and yellow dahlias and blended beautifully with the pink and white in the dining room, where the same color scheme extended to the refreshments.

In the receiving line were: Misses Elizabeth Young, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Young, the bride and groom; Miss Lillian Moorehead and Mr. Worth Bates. Those assisting in entertaining were: Mesdames A. G. Young, R. D. Barnett, Laura Young, Jas. R. Moorehead; Misses Elliott Todhunter, Carrie Field, Frances Young, little Misses Elizabeth Young and Helen Frazer.

Miss Virginia Graves returned Friday night from a visit with friends in Kansas City.

Mrs. Ward Slusher returned Friday from a brief visit in Kansas City.

O. F. Schweer went to Marshall Friday for a few days' visit.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Shelton went to Marshall Saturday for a brief visit.

Mrs. C. C. Barnard went to Kansas City Saturday to spend the day.

Miss Irene Welsh of Kansas City arrived Friday night for a brief visit with Mrs. Phillip Hogan.

Reception at Central.

The young ladies of Central college gave their first reception of the year in the college parlors Monday evening. The guests had the opportunity of seeing that the Central girls this year are unusually pretty and well dressed. A large number of young men from the academy and from town took the occasion of becoming acquainted at the college.

Frozen punch and cake was served in one of the halls and Smith's orchestra from behind a screen added to the enjoyment of the evening by good music.

In ever particular the reception was delightful and all of the guests enjoyed the hospitality of Dr. and Mrs. Williams, the faculty and the young ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnett Young (nee Miss Eliza Kelly), who were married at the bride's home in Georgetown, Kentucky, last Tuesday, arrived Saturday. Worth Bates, who was best man at the wedding accompanied them.

Geo. Logan went to Kansas City Saturday to visit his brother, who is seriously ill.

Blackwell-Reid.

Mr. George Blackwell and Miss Hazel Reid were married Wednesday, October 11, 1911, at the home of the bride's uncle, Mr. John B. Hunt, in Burlington, Iowa.

Mr. Blackwell is well known in Lexington, where he grew to manhood. He is the son of Mrs. Bettie M. Blackwell and is a young man of indomitable purpose and energy and is held in the highest esteem. He is a graduate of Wentworth Military Academy, and is now the assistant general manager of the Buick Motor Company with headquarters in Chicago. The Intelligencer joins with his many friends in Lexington in wishing him abundance of prosperity and happiness.

Presbyterians Call Minister.

At a meeting after the divine services Sunday morning the congregation of the Presbyterian church of this city voted to call Rev. C. R. Blain of Hustonville, Kentucky, to the pastorate of the church. It is not yet known whether or not he will accept.

spent Sunday, court having been adjourned until Monday.

George Wallace, who is on the reporter staff of the Kansas City Post, spent Saturday and Sunday in Lexington.

Mrs. Edward Aull accompanied by her two sons, Edward and Robert, went to Kansas City Saturday to spend the day.

JOSEPH B. SILVER DEAD

A Former Lexingtonian Dies in Grand Rapids, Mich.

Joseph B. Silver died Saturday night, October 14, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. H. Gilbert, 221 South College Avenue, Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Mr. Silver was born in Mobile, Alabama, sixty-one years ago. He came to Lexington early in life and was married thirty-eight years ago to Miss Fannie Windsor, daughter of Mrs. Mary Windsor, of this city. Besides his wife and one daughter he is survived by two brothers and one sister, as follows: William H. Silver and Mrs. John P. Boogher, of St. Louis, and Percy Silver of Merced, Texas.

Mr. Silver was for several years engaged in the cannery business in Lexington, afterwards he was a traveling salesman, and for a number of years past he was dealing in Texas real estate with headquarters in Kansas City.

Mr. Silver was a very courtly gentleman, and made friends wherever he went. His many friends and relatives were grievously shocked when the word came that he was dead. The Intelligencer joins with the people of the community in expressing sincerest sympathy to the bereaved family.

The body was brought to Lexington and taken to the home of E. J. McGrew, from which place the funeral was held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. T. M. Cobb, assisted by Rev. C. M. Davenport, and burial was in Macpelah.

The Rosary.

The Rosary, by Edward E. Rose was presented to a crowded house at the Grand Monday night. While not dramatized from "The Rosary" by Barclay the play proved to be a story of human interest and was way in advance of the general line of plays seen in Lexington. The cast proved competent, without an exception, but the parts taken by Miss Wanda Brindley and John Drury, were carried exceptionally well.

The management of the Grand is to be congratulated on securing such shows as "The Rosary," and the theatre goers of Lexington should support Manager Johnston when such shows are booked.

D. F. Conrad returned Monday night from a visit with relatives in Kansas City.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Shelton and Master J. Q. Cope returned Monday evening from a visit in Marshall.

E. W. H. Ahrens of Bellville, Kansas, and Wm. Ahrens of Sallisaw, Okla., left Tuesday for their respective homes after a visit here with relatives.

Mrs. Chas. Brashear arrived from Kansas City Monday for a visit with relatives.
